

Our Real Estate team

Assurance • Advisory • Consulting

PKF Littlejohn's team has a wealth of expertise in advising UK and overseas property developers, landlords and investors, and other businesses for which real estate is an integral part of their operations. The team's expertise covers the full spectrum of audit, accounting, tax advice (covering Corporation Tax, VAT, Stamp Duty Land Tax and capital allowances) and compliance support.

Audit and Assurance

Tim Herbert Partner

Tim has been advising UK businesses for almost 20 years, with a specialism in audit and assurance.

Tim heads up PKF Littlejohn's hotels team, advising domestic and international investors and operators on a wide range of issues, including audit, tax, property, financial due diligence, funding and employment.

VAT

Nick McChesney Partner

Nick is a Chartered Accountant and has worked in the accountancy and legal professions for over 25 years and has vast experience in advising UK and multi-national businesses on their VAT affairs. Nick helps clients to understand the impact of indirect tax regulations, to stay on top of the recent developments and ensure that they remain compliant and can structure transactions so as to benefit from the available exemptions and reliefs.

Nick's real estate sector work extends to supporting developers and building contractors with their VAT compliance obligations and identifying potential VAT reliefs; assessing the impact of VAT on building development projects and the entitlement to register and to recover VAT incurred; structuring transfers of investment property and the application of the transfer of going concern rules; and advising on the Landfill Tax and Aggregate Levy.
